

Beyond Measurement: Applying the Preconception Health Indicators

William Sappenfield, MD, MPH, State MCH Epidemiologist
Director, MCH Practice and Analysis Unit
Florida Department of Health

Vanessa Short, MPH, PhD
Senior Epidemiologist
Mississippi State Department of Health

Vanessa Short is a Senior Epidemiologist at the Mississippi State Department of Health. She is the Principal Investigator and Director of the CDC funded Mississippi Delta Cardiovascular Health Examination Survey (Delta CHES). Prior to moving to MS, she was a Maternal and Child Health Council of State and Territorial Epidemiologist (CSTE) Fellow in the Bureau of Epidemiology at the Pennsylvania Department of Health.

Melissa VonderBrink
Epidemiology Investigator
Ohio Department of Health

Melissa VonderBrink is a maternal and child health epidemiologist at the Ohio Department of Health. She received a Bachelor of Science degree in Animal Sciences and a Master's degree in Veterinary Public Health from Ohio State University. She has been working as an epidemiologist at the Ohio Department of Health since 2007, and is currently the Ohio PRAMS Coordinator. In addition to working on PRAMS operations and data analysis, Melissa has assisted with providing data for the Title V Maternal and Child Health Block Grant.

Tegan Callahan
Program Manager
Women's and Infant Health Team
AMCHP

Tegan Callahan works with AMCHP supporting member capacity to measure preconception health. Tegan has previously worked at the CDC, supporting evaluation projects and strategic communication at the Center for Global Health and the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry. Prior to working with the CDC, Tegan completed her Master's in Public Health at the University of Washington in Seattle where she focused on community-based public health practice and interned with both the HIV Program at Public Health Seattle and King County and a local, community-based intervention aimed at reducing fetal alcohol exposed births. She has also served as a health educator and community organizer in The Kingdom of Swaziland with the U.S. Peace Corps.